The goal of mediation is for you and the other party to work together to try and reach an agreement on some or all of the issues in your case. All agreements are voluntary. The mediator’s role during mediation will be to help you reach agreement, not to make a decision on the issues or to take sides. For mediation to be successful, those participating must be able to talk with one another and either agree or disagree without being fearful or intimidated. Before the parties attend mediation, we ask them to provide background information and to complete this confidential intake form. Please answer the following background questions to the best of your ability, as they will help to determine whether mediation is appropriate for your case.

16. What would you like to see as an outcome of mediation? _____
